

TRAINING INVITE

Hello!

On behalf of Declare No More Foundation, I am very excited to share with you the opportunity for a Human Trafficking Awareness & Prevention Training.

Unfortunately, human trafficking is an issue impacting not only our nation, but also our state and local communities. By increasing awareness and education, we can take meaningful steps toward prevention, recognize the signs of trafficking, and help connect victims and survivors with the resources and support they need to find lasting safety.

The training is approximately 90 minutes and includes a series of informative videos and guided discussion. By the end of the session, participants will have a stronger understanding of human trafficking, helpful resources they can share with others, and practical ways to recognize warning signs and take action within their communities.

To make the training possible, all that's needed is access to the internet and a screen to display the training materials.

I'd love the opportunity to bring this training to your team or organization and help equip more people with the knowledge and tools to make a difference. Please feel free to reach out with any questions, and I'd be happy to share more details!

Thank you for your time, and I look forward to staying connected.

Warmly,
